If you go to the Website of the 2018 Churchwide Gathering of Presbyterian Women you will see a colorful photo of a group of women—all with cut hair. And you will read that their logo is Arise, shine, your light has come! Purportedly from Isaiah 60:1. (Isaiah 60:1 is about the final restoration of the elect Jews. The next verse describes how it will be at that time; this “gathering” fits the bill: For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people, Isaiah 60:2). These women are in utter darkness about the Bible, and are serving their own interests, not God's. They want to run things, and they want to be preachers. They have no interest in being modest, keepers at home, spiritually mature, or showing genuine Bible charity to their fellow man. If they wanted to serve God, first and foremost, in the presence of the angels, they would stop cutting their hair.

For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels. Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered? If a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. (1 Corinthians 11:6-15)

You women are playing with fire, messing with God's scheme of things. Women are not punching bags, and they properly should be strong contributing spiritual members of the body of saints (see this sermon for more details: <http://tinyurl.com/ScarvesSermon>). But women are not the preachers, and they are not to be running the churches.

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. (Titus 2:9-14)

LET YOUR WOMEN KEEP SILENCE IN THE CHURCHES, 1 COR. 14:34!
