JESUS CHRIST TO BE BOLDLY PROCLAIMED AT THE RINGO STARR CONCERT, STARLIGHT THEATER (4600 STARLIGHT ROAD, KANSAS CITY, MO) ON MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3RD, 6:00-6:45 PM

GOD
HATES YOUR IDOLS

Ringo Starr (Richard Starkey) was a sickly little chap in his early years who came charging from behind in life by virtue of the musical talents God blessed him with. He is an extremely wealthy 78 year old, durably popular and generally pleasant fellow, with some now-common traits: He has two wives, multiple extramarital affair partners, three children, eight grandchildren and even a great-grandchild. He's acknowledged he was a drunken, wife-beating, absentee father in years past, as he indulged in the vanity of fame and fortune while his wife and children languished.

PREPARE TO MEET
THY GOD

Let's get real about our friend Ringo: By any measure he will soon be called to account to God for his earthly conduct. In preparation for that, we entreat him to repent of his idolatry, manpleasing and God-knows what other sins, and use the time, energy, wealth and other resources God has given him to encourage everyone he can to obey God. Neither time, enduring popularity/fame/wealth, nor any other human situation gives anyone the option of disobedience to God; nor does it excuse any from their duty to know God's standards and serve as examples of obedience for others. Ringo is an aged man, and our forefather Titus had good instruction for him: But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. (Titus 2:1-2). As John Gill (from the same homeland as Ringo) sums this up: aged men should be watchful over their conduct and conversation, "lest being evil it should be drawn into an example by younger persons". Is there a more important thing for Ringo to do at this time of his life; or any of us? Nay!

MAN'S JOB = OBEY GOD!
