Every human with the ear of any child has one overriding duty, from which every word and action of instruction should flow: Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD. (Psalm 34:11) When you heed that duty, good things result! As Dr. Gill summarizes regarding the fear of God: “so many good things are promised to them that have it ... this is the first lesson to be taught and learnt; for it is the beginning of wisdom; it includes all grace, and every duty, and regards the whole worship of God and the manner of it.” When you refuse or neglect that duty, awful confusion and darkness results.

North Kansas City schools now stand at the front of the line in teaching confusion and rebellion to the children put – by the power of governmental mandate – in their care. They have unwarranted and perverse pride in being frontrunners through having a male (God formed him and his unalterable chromosomes) crowned homecoming queen, and now they are racing to push those children into “unisex” bathrooms. What unmitigated folly! It is no wonder young people in this nation are being bullied to death and otherwise committing suicide over these issues. Woe and shame to each adult involved! WBC will take their Tranny Tour over to North Kansas City, Lord willing, in faithful and earnest warning to put aside the disobedience and fix your eyes on God and his commandments that bring life, health and peace.

FEAR OF LORD IS BEGINNING OF WISDOM!
